EXERCISE MODIFICATIONS

- If an activity heavily requires the use of legs, students may choose to do just the upper body movements and/or upper body modifications (such as the ones suggested above).
- Encourage students to go at their own pace and take frequent breaks.
- For students with special education needs, exercises should be adapted in accordance with accommodations/modifications outlined in their Individual Education Plans.